WANTED-THREE GIRLS TO BECOME STARS IN MOVIES; PRODUCER ASKS THIS MAGAZINE TO FIND THEM FOR HIM

Betzwood Film Co. Seeks Fresh Types of Ingenue for "Toonerville Trolley" Comedies—Here Is Chance for Any Girl Who Reads This Page-Send in Your Photographs at Once

WE HAVE been asked to find three girls who want to go into the Land of Heart's Desire-into the mystic, fascinating rea'm of the motion-picture studio.

We want to find those girls. We want them to find us. We want them to find themselves and, above all, we want them to launch, through this Movie Magazine, into careers that hold out the brilliant promise of fame, of fortune, of great longings, fulfilled, of genuine romance that will lift them forever above the drab monotony that surrounds the work-a-day lives of most of us.

Briefly, the proposition is this:

The Betzwood Film Co., with its studios and its immense plant out on the Pennsylvania Railroad, has contracted to produce a series of film comedies based on the Fontaine Fox cartoons, "The Toonerville Trolley."

They want to discover and develop a new, fresh type of ingenue for these comedies.

They have asked us to find three girls of a fresh type for

And they promise to take these girls, train them, pay them well during the training, and to make leading women of at least one of them and, if the talent is there, of all three

Do not think that this is a chance confined to this part of the country. These films will be marketed by Associated First National Pictures, Inc., one of the niggest of the film companies, which serves over 5000 houses throughout the United States.

Perhaps we should not call this a "beauty" outest. Mere beauty 's not the thing that is to count What we want to find is personality. Individuality, charm—that indescriba-ble something that carries the genuine comedience straight into the hearts of ram these fifteen, your committee, in conjugation pitt ira II. Lowry, car supervising alrector, will seest the three who seem best to wass the test.

We guarantee to employ these three young women in he next succeeding "Toonerville" production in minor carts to give them some experience, and to watch their respective merits. Earing this time we will pay them ien dollars a day for at least flur days a week until that production is completed.

Car Mr. Lowry will select the best from these three as the ingenue for the next succeeding production, and we will guarantee her a weekly salary of $100 until that arounction has been completed. We hope by the time, these three young ladies have had experience that not sione the car selected as the first ingents, but also the other two may be in line for promotion.
